Andrews Fasteners has recently gone through a restructuring process.

Due to this, we are now operating through a new company with the new company number of 9350180 and a new VAT number.

From a quality point of view, all test certificates will be issued as usual, with one change of the registration number on them.

There is no change to ISO 9001 and CE certification. If there are any concerns, please do not hesitate to contact our company - phone no 0113 246 9992 or by e-mail address quality@andrewsfasteners.co.uk.
